

New Zealand Certificate in English Language (NZCEL) Level 3 General

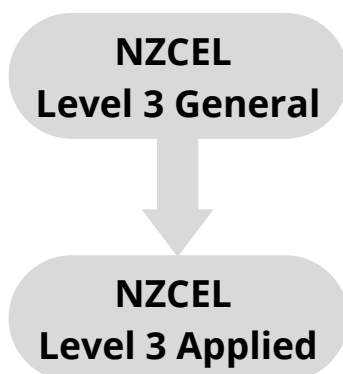

NZQA Accredited and TEC funded

With the New Zealand Certificate in English Language Level 3 General, students will be able to gain more independence and fluency for communicating in workplace activities that require face-to-face communication and context-specific record-keeping. Students will develop the skills required to understand spoken and written language and will be able to write longer topics with which they are less familiar. This certificate produces an English proficiency equivalent to IELTS 5.0.

Course Outcomes:

- Present organised, developed speeches
- Communicate with more confidence in conversations on familiar topics
- Understand the main points and identify specific information in spoken discourse and conversations
- Read and understand the main text and supporting details in texts on familiar topics and how they relate to the overall purpose of the text
- Write coherent texts for practical purposes.
