Private Tuition

Private sessions with a dedicated personal tutor who will create a tailor-made programme just for you.

Private tuition gives you the opportunity to concentrate on your own areas of priority. Private tuition can be done as an individual or with a small group of friends. Your tutor will perform a detailed needs analysis before starting and developing a fully individualised curriculum that addresses your specific needs.

The curriculum can be customised to:

- General English
- Exam Preparation (IELTS, PTE, OET, etc)
- English for Specific Purposes (i.e. business)
- Accent and pronunciation
- Focus on a particular skill, i.e. reading or writing
- Speaking and communication

Can't attend English classes because of work commitments?

With private tuition, you can design a timetable that fits around your work hours. Many employers consider our private tuition as "Professional Development" and may help finance the course.

Planning to sit a proficiency test but not confident you will pass?

Students planning to sit exams often need to improve their English skills within a short timeframe or need to improve some specific sub-test skills. Private tuition will help you achieve the results you want.
